Posted on March 29, 2010 by spikexan. Available at RPGNow.com. The Unbidden is Mage: the Ascension's contribution to the Night Horrors line. For those who haven't read my earlier reviews on this line, these books detail the kinds of monsters that monsters fear. You may be saying to yourself that the spellcasters in Mage aren't really monsters.

The pseudo-mage's abilities with Arcana increase every other day, and the apparent Gnosis grows by an order of magnitude per week; by the end of a month, a pseudo-mage is likely the equal of the vast majority of even experienced mages. A shame then, that as we know from Gnomon, absorbing Supernal knowledge at that rate is hazardous to the mind, and more and more of the pseudo-mage becomes little more than a vessel for their mystical obsessions, neglecting more and more of their personality ...
